

Dr. McClain Bio

Please join us in welcoming our new orthodontist, Dr. Michael McClain, D.M.D to Schuchert Orthodontics. Dr. McClain will be joining our practice officially starting October 4th. We have taken great effort to find someone who can uphold the highest quality of service that patients can appreciate.

Dr. McClain grew up in Williamsport, PA and attended Saint Francis University in Loretto, PA for his undergraduate degree in Biology. It was at Saint Francis where he met his now wife, Erin McClain. They moved to Pittsburgh, PA for his dental school training at the University of Pittsburgh School of Dental Medicine where he would obtain his Doctorate of Dental Medicine degree. Dr. McClain then earned a Master of Science in Orthodontics and Dentofacial Orthopedics at Seton Hill University Center for Orthodontics in Greensburg, PA. He has spent the past two and a half years working in the Lancaster, Pennsylvania area as the sole orthodontist in a few office locations. Dr. McClain is a member of the American Association of Orthodontists, American Dental Association, and Pennsylvania Dental Association.

Dr. McClain encourages patients and their families to be involved in developing efficient and successful treatment plans. He utilizes up to date scientific research and technologies in combination with his clinical skills to obtain exceptional results. Dr. McClain is focused on maximizing the patient experience for both children and adults and his calm and approachable demeanor will make you feel at ease. Furthermore, he is skilled in Invisalign, metal braces, and clear braces.

Dr. McClain is married to Erin McClain who received her Masters of Physician Assistant degree from Saint Francis University. They will reside in Williamsport with their two children, Finnley and Grace, and their golden retriever, Charlie. In his free time, Dr. McClain enjoys spending as much time with his family as possible, traveling, beach going, tennis, golf, and fly fishing. He is a fan of the Pittsburgh Steelers, Pittsburgh Penguins, and Penn State football.
